

Drake University Law School invites applications from entry level and lateral candidates for a tenure-track or tenured position beginning in the 2017-18 academic year. We are especially interested in candidates with demonstrated interest or experience in Wills and Trusts or Taxation. Qualifications include: a record of academic excellence, substantial academic or practice experience, and a passion for teaching. Appointment rank will be determined commensurate with the candidate's qualifications and experience.

Drake University Law School sustains a vibrant intellectual culture, and Des Moines has been recognized as the Best U.S. City for Business (MarketWatch), the Best Place for Young Professionals (Forbes), and as the city with the Highest Median Income (US News/The Today Show). The Law School features innovative and nationally-recognized programs in agricultural law, constitutional law, intellectual property, and practical training. Our location in Iowa's capital city also offers opportunities to participate in the synergy of law and politics.

Drake is an equal opportunity employer dedicated to workforce diversity. We strongly encourage women, people of color, and others who would enrich the diversity of our academic community to apply. For more information on the law school and its programs, see www.drake.edu/law. Interested candidates should send a letter of interest, a CV, and a list of references to Professor Andrew Jurs, Chair, Faculty Appointments Committee, Drake Law School, 2507 University Ave., Des Moines, IA 50311 or submit by email to andrew.jurs@drake.edu.
