

International Tax Policy Forum
Institute of International Economic Law

Can an Internationally Competitive Tax System Protect Its Tax Base?

February 2, 2018

Georgetown University Law Center

Gewirz Student Center, 120 F Street, NW, Washington, DC 20001

Agenda

- 8:30 am Registration
- 8:50 am Introductory Remarks
John Samuels (Chairman, ITPF)
William Treanor (Dean, Georgetown Law)
- 9:00 am Recent International Measures to Limit Tax Base Erosion
Moderator: Mihir Desai (Harvard Business School)
Presenters: Calum Dewar (PwC)
Mike Williams (Director, Business and International Tax, HM Treasury)
- 9:45 am Economic Consequences of Limiting Base Erosion with Inbound Investment
Moderator: Michelle Hanlon (MIT Sloan School of Management)
Presenters: Jennifer Blouin (The Wharton School)
Michael Devereux (Oxford University Saïd Business School)
- 10:30 am Economic Consequences of Limiting Base Erosion with Outbound Investment
Moderator: Lilian Faulhaber (Georgetown Law)
Presenters: Rosanne Altshuler (Rutgers University)
Alfons Weichenrieder (Goethe University, Frankfurt)
- 11:10 am Break
- 11:25 am What Should (and Shouldn't) the United States Do Now to Protect Its Tax Base and Ensure a Competitive Environment Globally?
Moderator: James Hines (University of Michigan)
Presenters: Kimberly Clausing (Reed College)
Itai Grinberg (Georgetown Law)
Alan Auerbach (University of California-Berkeley)
Paul Oosterhuis (Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP)
- 12:30 pm Luncheon
- 12:45 pm Luncheon Address
Introduction: John Samuels (Chairman, ITPF)
Speaker: Kevin Hassett (Chairman, Council of Economic Advisers)
- 1:30 pm Adjourn