NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL
The Otto L. Walter Distinguished Faculty Chair

New York Law School is pleased to announce the establishment of the Otto L. Walter Distinguished Faculty Chair. The chair honors Otto Walter, one of New York Law School’s most renowned alumni, authority on international and tax law, and founder of Walter, Conston, Alexander & Green, the predecessor firm in New York of Alston & Bird.

The Otto Walter chairholder will be a top U.S. or international scholar with a strong publication and/or practice record in International Tax Law, U.S. Tax Law and its global implications, or International Business Law. The holder of the Otto L. Walter Distinguished Faculty Chair will be expected to pursue an active research agenda, teach J.D. and LL.M. students, and be a contributing member of New York Law School’s academic community. The appointment includes a competitive salary and benefits appropriate for a chairholder, a research stipend to reward scholarship in the subject areas of the chair, and research support.

The inaugural holder of the Otto Walter Chair will be expected to take up the position by August 2011, but other start dates will be considered as needed. Applications for the Chair are open now and will be considered on a rolling basis. While our preference is to fill the position through a tenured appointment, we are open to other possibilities, such as a visit or term appointment, or the appointment of a distinguished practitioner.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

Please send your application materials, including a resume, and a cover letter describing present and future research and teaching plans.

Applications and queries may be directed to:

CONTACT: Professor Dan Hunter
Faculty Appointments Committee
New York Law School
185 West Broadway
New York, NY 10013
Email: dhunter@nyls.edu

ABOUT NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL

Founded in 1891, New York Law School is an independent law school located in lower Manhattan near the city’s centers of law, government, and finance. New York Law School’s renowned faculty of prolific scholars has built the School’s strength in such areas as constitutional law, civil and human rights, labor and employment law, media and information law, urban legal studies, international and comparative law, and a number of interdisciplinary fields. The School is noted for its nine academic centers: Center on Business Law & Policy, Center on Financial Services Law, Center for International Law, Center for New York City Law, Center for Professional Values and Practice, Center for Real Estate Studies, Diane Abbey Law Center for Children and Families, Institute for Information Law & Policy, and Justice Action Center. New York Law School has more than 13,000 graduates and enrolls some 1,500 students in its full- and part-time J.D. program and its four advanced degree programs in financial services law, real estate, tax, and mental disability law studies. www.nyls.edu

New York Law School is committed to developing a diverse workforce and student body and to supporting an inclusive urban campus community. We strongly encourage applications from diverse candidates.