Ahmanson Law Center
21st and Cass Streets
Room 124

THE TEPOEL LECTURE SERIES

The TePoel Lecture Series is named in honor of Dean Louis TePoel, teacher, scholar, and academic administrator, who served on the Creighton Law School faculty from 1907 to 1947 and as Dean from 1920 to 1947.

Inaugurated in 1975 with a lecture given by Professor Harold J. Berman of the Harvard Law School, the series has featured many legal scholars of national and international reputation.

The Law School takes great pride in the TePoel Lecture Series. It is a primary means by which Creighton continues to provide its students and the Omaha legal community with the best in legal education.

TEPOEL LECTURER

PAUL L. CARON

Associate Dean of Faculty and Charles Hartsock Professor of Law
University of Cincinnati College of Law

Paul Caron is one of the leading entrepreneurial tax scholars in the United States. He is co-author of a leading casebook, FEDERAL WEALTH TRANSFER TAXATION (Foundation Press), and his popular book, TAX STORIES (Foundation Press), has served as the model for a series of over thirty LAW STORIES books in other subjects, which are designed to enrich both teaching and scholarship. Dean Caron is the editor of the GRADUATE TAX SERIES (LexisNexis) of books designed for use in tax LL.M. programs. He has written over thirty articles in law journals, including most recently, The Estate Tax Non-Gap: Why Repeal a "Voluntary Tax"?, 20 STAN. L. & POL'Y REV. 153 (2009).

Dean Caron is well known in the tax community for his work as publisher and editor of TaxProf Blog, the most popular tax blog on the Internet (with over 9 million visitors since its April 15, 2004 launch). He also serves as Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of the Law Professor Blogs Network of more than 50 blogs edited by law professors around the country in other areas of law. Dean Caron serves as editor of three electronic journals of Tax Law Abstracts published by the Social Science Research Network (SSRN).

Dean Caron has been named one of the Top 100 Most Influential People in Tax and Accounting four years running by Accounting Today. In January, he was named one of the ten most influential people in taxation in the United States by Tax Notes magazine.

Dean Caron's lecture, entitled The Costs of Estate Tax Dithering, will address the consequences of the inaction by Congress and the Obama Administration in allowing the estate tax to expire on December 31, 2009.
