

BOSTON COLLEGE | LAW

BOSTON COLLEGE LAW SCHOOL added 8 tenure-track faculty appointments during the past two years, and we continue our appointments momentum as we welcomed our new dean, Odette Lienau, in January 2023.

We expect to make multiple tenure-track faculty appointments for Fall 2024, entry-level through to senior-tenured level. We welcome applications from candidates across all areas of law, and particularly invite expressions of interest from scholars teaching and writing in environmental law, torts, civil procedure/jurisdiction, tax, professional responsibility, family law, technology/privacy/cybersecurity, commercial law/related areas, and criminal law/procedure.

Applicants must possess a J.D. or equivalent degree and outstanding academic credentials. Relevant experience in private practice, government service, public service, judicial clerkship, or a Ph.D./S.J.D. is strongly preferred.

Boston College, a Jesuit, Catholic university and the first institution of higher education operating in Boston, is today among the nation's foremost universities. The Law School, founded in 1929 and located in Newton, Massachusetts, approximately 7 miles west of downtown Boston, is informed by traditions of academic rigor, service to others, and personal and professional formation of its students.

Boston College conducts pre-employment background checks as part of the hiring process. Boston College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, veteran status, or any other classification protected under federal, state or local law. We strongly encourage those who would enrich the diversity of our academic community to apply. To learn more about how BC supports diversity and inclusion throughout the university please visit the Office of Institutional Diversity at <https://www.bc.edu/content/bc-web/offices/human-resources/sites/oid/About-Us.html>.

Interested applicants should contact: Diane Ring, Chair, Appointments Committee, at lawappts@bc.edu, or at Boston College Law School, 885 Centre Street, Newton, MA 02459.