

The 2016 BYU Law Review Symposium

A Scholarly Conversation at the Cutting Edge of International Tax Reform

March 11, 2016

By Invitation

Professor Kimberly Clausing (Reed College)

Competitiveness, Tax Base Erosion, and the Essential Dilemma of Corporate Tax Reform

Professors J. Clifton Fleming Jr. (BYU) and Robert J. Peroni (Texas)

You Can Run But You Can't Hide: Addressing Inversions and Defending Worldwide Taxation with a Shareholder-based Definition of Corporate Residence

Professor Julie Roin (Chicago)

Inversions and Source Taxation: Changing the Paradigm for the Taxation of Foreign and Foreign-Owned Businesses

Professor Bret Wells (Houston)

The Foreign Tax Credit War

Professor Omri Marian (U.C. Irvine)

Private Investment Funds and International Tax Avoidance

Professor Allison Christians (McGill)

Not-So-Soft Law: The OECD Tax Regime

Professor Diane Ring (Boston College)

Developing Countries in an Age of Transparency and Disclosure