PROFESSORS OF COLOR

Coalitions of Color and the Rule of Law in the Trump Administration

October 18-20, 2018

The times in which we live require concerted activities among many different progressive coalitions, particularly people of color, to preserve the rule of law. The Trump Administration has initiated many policies and laws that have negatively affected communities of color, women, and immigrants. It has also revived a “law and order” narrative that adversely affected communities of color in the 1980s, 1990s, and 2000s. The rule of law is under great strain because of the actions of the Administration and the ongoing packing of the courts to achieve ends that are deleterious to immigrants, women, and people of color. The need for a rule of law principle that strengthens and protects communities of color has never been greater.

This Conference will bring together law professors of color and allies to define and explicate the rule of law in this era. The Western Law Professors of Color (WLPOC) and the Conference of Asian Pacific American Law Faculty (CAPALF) welcomes you to Las Vegas from the afternoon of Thursday October 18 to the afternoon of Saturday October 20, 2018 at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas William S. Boyd School of Law.

Co-Chairs Nancy Chi Cantalupo, Frank Rudy Cooper, Ruben Garcia, and Rebecca Lee on behalf of the Planning Committee

Coalitions of Color and the Rule of Law in These Times

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

Thursday, October 18, 2018

- 4:00 p.m. Introduction, Nancy Chi Cantalupo, Barry University
Opening Keynote: Sunu Chandy, Legal Director, National Women's Law Center
"#MeToo, TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund, & The Resistance: Using Litigation to Protect the Rule of Law in the Trump Era"
Sunu Chandy, Legal Director at the National Women's Law Center in Washington, D.C., will discuss current litigation, in which the National Women's Law Center has taken a leadership role, challenging the Trump administration's efforts to roll back civil rights laws in education, healthcare, and the workplace. In addition, she will discuss the TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund, housed at the National Women's Law Center, which works with the Center's Legal Network for Gender Equity to enable more individuals who experience sexual assault, abuse or harassment to find legal representation. TIME'S UP was started by women in the entertainment industry to combat the systemic power imbalances that have prevented many women, especially women of color, from being safe and reaching their full potential in the workplace.
