

NEW ENGLAND LAW | BOSTON
SPRING 2024 FACULTY APPOINTMENTS LISTING

New England Law | Boston invites applications from candidates for one or more tenure-track, assistant professor positions to begin in the fall 2024 semester. We seek to hire entry-level members of the faculty who are interested in teaching foundational courses, particularly civil procedure, constitutional law, property, and torts, as well as upper-level courses in administrative law, business organizations, family law, and tax. We especially encourage applications from qualified candidates who will contribute to the diversity of our law school community. Applicants must possess a J.D. from an accredited U.S. law school or equivalent degree, and must demonstrate strong scholarly potential and a commitment to excellent teaching. Review of applications will continue until the positions are filled. Individuals interested in applying for a position should submit a letter of application, a résumé or curriculum vitae, a detailed statement of interest including teaching and research interests, and the names and contact information of three references. These materials, and any questions, should be submitted to the Faculty Appointments Committee, via email to deansoffice@nesl.edu, with the subject line “Faculty Appointments Committee.”