

INDIANA UNIVERSITY ROBERT H. MCKINNEY SCHOOL OF LAW invites applications from experienced scholars for appointment as our Chair in Taxation, to begin in the 2020-21 academic year. The law school seeks applications from persons with distinguished records of scholarship and teaching who would be eligible for appointment as a full professor with tenure. We are committed to achieving excellence through intellectual diversity and encourage applications from persons of color, women, persons with disabilities, the LGBTQ+ community, veterans, and members of other groups that are under-represented on university faculties. The law school is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution with a strong commitment to inclusion and offers domestic partner benefits: <https://mckinneylaw.iu.edu/about/administration/policies/diversity-and-inclusion.html>. The faculty is truly collegial. Indianapolis, where the law school is situated, is the state capital and a vibrant city with a variety of restaurants, theaters, and musical venues. Indianapolis is in the top ten of the Best Affordable Places to live, according to U.S. News & World Report. To apply, please fill out the application at: <http://indiana.peopleadmin.com/postings/8119>. For more information, please contact Professor Florence Wagman Roisman at froisman@iupui.edu.
