

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA LEVIN COLLEGE OF LAW seeks to hire a visiting assistant professor in tax as part of the College's pursuit of excellence in legal education and scholarship. The University of Florida, located in Gainesville, FL, currently has the #3 tax law program in the nation and is the flagship university of the third largest state.

We welcome applications from holders of JD, LLM, and SJD degrees as well as from Ph.D. recipients or candidates in a related field. Successful candidates will have strong scholarly potential, commitment to excellence in teaching, and enthusiasm for creating a welcoming environment for all students.

VAPs will spend one or two years in residence at the Levin College of Law and will teach one class per semester in the JD tax or LLM tax curriculum. VAPs will have the opportunity to participate fully in the law school's vibrant scholarly community and will benefit from the mentorship of our renowned tax and other faculty. The program's goal is to prepare VAPs for a future career in legal academia.

Application materials should include a cover letter, a research agenda, a resume with at least three references, and a writing sample. Materials may be emailed to Professor Yariv Brauner at brauner@law.ufl.edu or uploaded at <http://jobs.ufl.edu>.

The University of Florida is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information, disability, and veteran status in all aspects of employment.
